

How long do I isolate for?

If any member of the household becomes symptomatic from this day onwards, they will arrange a test through NHS Inform and self isolate for 10 full days. The household will begin a period of self isolation for 14 days *

* The whole household will receive a communication from ACE staff to advise them of this and the symptomatic person will receive a personal communication from ACE after their notification.